FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hermès Birkin bag sells for house record

Fellows Auctioneers saw record breaking prices at the third designer collection auction on October 10th. With frenzied bidding coming from eager bidders in the packed saleroom, on the telephone and over the internet, the sale saw great results across the designers.

Enduringly popular, the iconic Chanel bags flew with all of the classic styles achieving hammer prices from £900 - 1,800.

More French style came from designers Yves Saint Laurent and Louis Vuitton, both of which proved extremely popular on the day. The classic monogram LV pattern was highly sought after yet again with a range of sizes from a small Solange handbag to a large Luco tote selling well.

British designer, Mulberry, was very popular with bidders on the day, particularly the classic Bayswater style. The Oak East West Bayswater handbag doubled its estimate to sell for £300.

The real stars of the show were the Hermès Birkin bags. All four of the Birkin bags offered for sale sold and the highlight of the auction was a red Porosus Crocodile Birkin 35 handbag [pictured]. This stunning piece achieved a hammer price of 18,000, a house record for a handbag sold at Fellows Auctioneers.

The next Designer Collection auction will be held on December 9th at Fellows' Birmingham saleroom. Fellows is now accepting consignments for this auction, please get in touch on 0121 212 2131 or email info@fellows.co.uk.
